'PRE NUP' PARADISE AT LOUGH ERNE RESORT

Lough Erne Resort has developed a luxurious bespoke 'Pre Nup' package specifically for couples who are considering The Resort as their wedding venue.

The package, from as little as £187/€249 per person sharing*, offers the future bride and groom the opportunity to personally experience the five star luxury, attention to detail and service available at the stunning Resort. The Resort's expert wedding coordinators will also be available to discuss the couple's wedding plans.

Jonathan Stapleton, General Manager, Lough Erne Resort, Northern Ireland's first AA 5 start hotel, discusses:

“The process of selecting a wedding venue can be a very stressful experience. Trying to find a location that not only meets your requirements but which fulfils the varying needs of friends, family and relations can be a challenge.

“Lough Erne Resort provides an idyllic venue for weddings. It is set on a 600-acre peninsula between Lower Lough Erne and Castle Hume Lough, with stunning views from almost every vantage point. The Resort is your Resort for the day as we have a one wedding per day policy which guarantees that you receive exemplary service. The fairytale ambiance begins as soon as you step onto the red carpet at the candlelit Ross Drawbridge, your very own private entrance, and take the sweeping staircase into the grandeur of The Ross Suite”.

By day, The Ross Suite Function Room is flooded with natural daylight, directly overlooking Castle Hume Lough, and by night, the opulent chandeliers add that extra sparkle to the venue.

Jonathan adds: “Rather than rely on our word for it, we believe that couples should be able to experience The Resort for themselves through the 'Pre Nup' package. The Package is inclusive of a one night stay in a luxurious Loughside Suite and dinner in The Catalina Restaurant where you can savour the culinary skills of Acclaimed Chef, Noel McMeel and enjoy a glass of Billecart-Salmon Champagne, Lough Erne Resort's preferred Champagne.

“We believe that enormous pleasure may be derived from a perfect marriage of food and wine. Lough Erne Resort's wine list brings together a unique and extensive collection of classic wines from the traditional regions of France, Italy and Spain, combined with the best new labels from countries as diverse as Austria, Argentina, and Australia. The Resort's wine list was created in association with Jane Boyce, Ireland's first female Master of Wine and still the only person to hold the qualification in Northern Ireland."

The "Pre Nup" package also allows couples to relax and unwind at The Resort's unique Thai Spa. They will enjoy a one-hour authentic Thai Spa treatment in the Dual Treatment Room where the team of Thai Therapists use exclusive Thai Products and Traditional Thai techniques.

During their stay couples can also enjoy the tranquil environment of The Collop Walk which is located within the grounds of The Resort and has stunning views over Lower Lough Erne and The Faldo Championship Course, with a stop at The Halfway House for a light bite.

The magical surroundings and awe inspiring views create an idyllic atmosphere and are the perfect backdrop to capture wedding day photographs.

Jonathan continues: "The Resort's expert team of Wedding Coordinators will ensure that your wedding is truly unique in every way and every aspect is tailored to your individual requirements. The team can help plan every aspect of your wedding reception, whether large or intimate, or a civil partnership at the outdoor gazebo, beautifully situated alongside the serene waters of Castle Hume Lough. They can also arrange your arrival by helicopter or by seaplane on Castle Hume Lough!"

Lough Erne Resort also has a wide range of romantic couples' packages available in addition to the 'Pre Nup' Package including 'The Couples Escape', 'For Him & For Her', and 'Suite Memory'.***
