- The Lough Erne Golf Village

Commercial Property and Interiors, June 2009

“Each of the holiday homes are kitted out to the highest standard, vast open living spaces, fully fitted top specification kitchens with utility room, marble counter tops and top end appliances. Owners of these homes qualify for unlimited use of the pool and thermal suite in the hotel. A huge bonus is complimentary membership to the Faldo Golf Course which itself is restricted to only 225 members. With a separate members lounge in the hotel and the possibility of propping up the bar with some famous names, these homes and limited golf memberships will be snapped up by canny investors.”
