

Enjoy The Great Outdoors at Lough Erne Golf Resort, Ireland and pay in Sterling

April 2009 - Guinness, good food and the great outdoors... Lough Erne Golf Resort in Ireland's Fermanagh Lakelands offers all the joys of Ireland in £ Sterling. A playground for outdoor activities, the resort's new Great Outdoors package offers guests the opportunity to try it all from just £181 per person per night.

Lough Erne is set in the north west of Ireland in one of the most untouched areas of the country. Here, guests can take advantage of the resort's world class facilities and on the hotel's doorstep are Lough Navar Forest and the magnificent Lough Erne, home to some of Europe's best fly-fishing. The hotel's resident game angling instructor Patrick Trotter - one of only 140 Master Casting Instructors in the world – will help guests navigate the waters, share the secrets of the lough and find the best spots for brown trout and coarse fish. Fermanagh is renowned for superb watersports and landsports from windsurfing and sailing, to caving and mountain biking in Cuilcagh Mountain Park.

The two-night Great Outdoors package costs from £362 per person, based on four people sharing a two-bedroom Lodge*, and includes:

- Two nights' accommodation in a Luxury Lakeview Lodge and a full Irish breakfast each morning
- An hour's fly fishing outing on Lough Erne with resident Ghillie Patrick Trotter and the "Irish Laddy" gourmet picnic lunch... Catch a trout and Lough Erne will cook it
- One Radiant Foot Therapy treatment (per person) in The Thai Spa and use of
- Dinner in The Halfway House & Seafood Experience which opens on the 22 May

Lough Erne Golf Resort

Lough Erne Golf Resort opened in County Fermanagh, Northern Ireland, in October 2007. It is set on a 600 acre private peninsula nestled in between Lower Lough Erne and Castle Hume Lough. The privately-owned hotel has 120 guestrooms including 25 two and three bedroom Luxury Lakeside Lodges which offer private, fully serviced accommodation. Lough Erne Golf Resort offers The Thai Spa, The Catalina Restaurant for à la carte dining, The Blaney Bar and The Grazing Menu and The Garden Hall for afternoon teas. It offers world class facilities for private meetings and events. In summer 2009 Lough Erne Golf Resort will have the use of two 18-hole championship golf courses with the opening The Faldo Championship Course. Coinciding with this exciting launch, The Halfway House & Seafood Experience, a 34 seat dining experience overlooking lower Lough Erne and The Loughside Clubhouse with restaurant and bar will officially open. The Castle Hume Championship Golf Course is already open. Lough Erne Golf Resort is located just five minutes from Enniskillen (St Angelo) private airport. It is also easily accessible from Belfast International, Belfast City, City of Derry airports and Dublin Airport. All tills at Lough Erne Golf Resort accept Euro currency.
