Lough Erne Resort

North West Ireland's Family Escape

February 2010: Lough Erne Resort, North West Ireland, does not underestimate the value of family time. From April, The Resort will launch Mini Cygnets, a new programme created entirely for new born guests to toddlers, aged 0-3years and in May 2010, Lough Erne Resort will launch in July its own Faldo Academy with a special Cygnets golf package designed exclusively for guests aged 6-11 years.

The perfect excuse to treat the children and escape for an exquisite and truly relaxing holiday, Cygnets, The 'BIG' Experience for our younger guests, at Lough Erne Resort costs from £238.50pp (based on four persons sharing) and includes two-nights in a 'Swan' view room, a buffet breakfast each morning; a choice of special DVD's available from the DVD Library, an early dinner with all the family as well as the full Cygnets or Mini-Cygnets package for kids*.

The Faldo Academy at Lough Erne will be run by a team of Lough Erne's PGA professionals. Carefully designed for the smaller guests, the 45-minute Cygnets golf sessions cost £20pp and includes tuition, Cygnet's golf hat, refreshments and a certificate of participation.

Easily accessible, from both Belfast Airports (90mins) and Dublin Airport (120 mins), Lough Erne Resort offers the space and freedom of the country, with all the style and service of the city – the perfect ingredients for relaxed and enjoyable family time. Five more reasons to visit Lough Erne Resort with the family include:

- Luxury family friendly accommodation – 120 luxury guest rooms including 25 two and three-bedroom luxury Loughside Lodges with stunning panoramic views of The Faldo Course, Castle Hume Lough and the Fermanagh countryside
- The fabulous Young Diners Menu is available throughout The Resort, or order a babysitter and escape 'à deux' for gourmet cuisine and serene surroundings in The Catalina Restaurant
- Space to let off steam - on a stunning 600-acre peninsula nestled between Castle Hume Lough and Lower Lough Erne in County Fermanagh
- Adults are not forgotten – whilst the children enjoy their time, the adults can escape to The Thai Spa for a traditional Thai treatment using Lau Erb products, head off for a walk around Fermanagh or enjoy The Collop Walk around The Resort Grounds, enrol for golf lesson at the new Faldo Academy or enjoy a round golf on The Faldo Course...or simply, just sit back, relax and enjoy the views from The Garden Hall and indulge in Traditional, Chocolate or Pink Afternoon Tea.
- ...and plenty of things to do and places to visit nearby: 365 Lough Erne islands waiting to be explored, horse-riding, cycling, golf and watersports, Tickety-Moo super ice cream; stately homes, heritage centres, neoclassical mansions, castles, monastic sites, Marble Arch Caves, Belleek Pottery, Ireland's oldest pottery, Orchard Acre Barn - Fermanagh's only Eco Barn and MV Kestrel in Enniskillen - a 56 seater guided tour waterbus on Lower Lough Erne.

The choices are endless at Lough Erne Resort, and whilst it is so easy to get to, guests often find it hard to leave...
