

LOUGH ERNE GOLF RESORT The Inspiration for Any Event

28 November 2008: Five star Lough Erne Golf Resort in North West Ireland is now taking bookings for its three new delegate packages – Inspire, Motivate and Reward – which launch on 1 April 2009. The three packages offer 24 hour delegate options and cater to a range of budgets. The five star Resort, set on a 600-acre peninsula between Castle Hume Lough and Lower Lough Erne in the Fermanagh Lakelands, provides an inspirational venue and easily accessible venue for any business or group.

The three 24 hour packages include meeting room hire, bed and breakfast accommodation, refreshments throughout the day, meals in the Resort and use of the Thermal Suite, Infinity Pool and Fitness Room. Choices are:

- Inspire: standard package, from £170 per person
- Motivate: from £210 per person, offers an activity of the delegate's choice: half hour Thai Spa treatment, golf lesson, fly fishing casting lesson or Irish Whiskey tasting
- Reward: from £250 per person, offers the choice of half hour activity (same as Motivate), in addition to a fabulous champagne and canapés reception and four course menus created by Acclaimed Chef Noel McMeel.

The experts in the events team at the five star Resort can tailor the packages, adding activities - including lough fishing, private local guided historical and cultural tours in Fermanagh, pony trekking - and organising exclusive hire of luxury 4x4 vehicles (Range Rover, Range Rover Sport, Land Rover Discovery and Freelander 2 are available). For a truly dramatic entrance, delegates can arrive by seaplane or helicopter and enter the resort up a red carpet into a private entrance.

Trisha Ellse, Events Manager, said: “Our new packages are designed to ensure guests leave the Resort inspired, energised and motivated. The Resort is located in one of the most untouched, beautiful areas of North West Ireland. Our unspoiled natural views and meeting rooms flooded with natural light inspire fresh thinking and new ideas. The natural environment means guests leave behind their everyday distractions and get down to business. Time is precious and we have created these 24 hour packages to ensure every minute of the guest’s stay is used to best advantage.”

The Northern Ireland Federation of Housing Associations (NIFHA) recently held their annual conference at Lough Erne Golf Resort. Frank Dunne, Chairman, NIFHA said: “The excellent food, great facilities and magnificent setting all contributed to a very successful conference for NIFHA.”

Another successful event recently organised by the Resort team was for the Construction Industry Training Board (CITB). Allan McMullen, Chief Executive, said: “The building itself, the ambience, the rooms and food were top class, with all of it enhanced by the most professional, polite and helpful staff. As a keen golfer for many years I have visited famous golf courses in many countries but none as impressive as the potential for Lough Erne.”
